COUNTY URGES RESIDENTS TO GIVE INPUT ON TRANSIT NEEDS

The Butler County Board of Commissioners urge residents to complete a survey on transit needs conducted by the Southwestern Pennsylvania Commission. The SPC works with local, state and federal governments to plan for the continued growth of the region, accessing transportation and economic development funds for projects in the region.

Under the commission's Smartmoves Connections: A Regional Vision for Public Transit project, it is seeking public input to learn about people's transit needs and their views on improving transportation. The survey relays research about transit land uses already derived from the project.
